THE BUSINESS OF NON-PROFIT: FROM SMALL TO BIG... FROM GOOD TO GREAT

LOUIS TEHAN '74

Native Utican and 1974 Graduate of Utica College, Louis Tehan has served as the president and CEO of Upstate Cerebral Palsy for 30 years, providing services to individuals with special needs and their families. With an annual budget of more than $75 million, Upstate Cerebral Palsy employs more than 2,000 staff at 75 locations, providing life-enriching programs to more than 15,000 infants, children, and adults throughout Oneida, Herkimer, Lewis and Madison counties and beyond. Join us to hear the story of how the business of a non-profit is conducted and how Tehan manages, monitors and expands the services of his organization.

THURSDAY, NOV. 3, 7:00 P.M.
